

■ SAILINGPerini set
to take title

SYDNEY'S Richard Perini is poised to claim Australia's fifth world sailing crown of the year today, with the skipper of the Farr 40 Evolution keeping the overall lead in the regatta off Sydney Heads yesterday.

Italian Marco Rodolfi's TWT became the second yacht in the regatta to claim consecutive wins, but Perini and his crew's consistency over three races saw the Australian hold on to the overall lead.

— AMANDA LULHAM